Errata—Additions and Corrections to the Program Book

In SOTN #3, there will be a list of the Minicon mailing list arranged by zip code to help wandering fans find wanderers from nearby places. We will use this list in the "How to organize a Metropolitan Fan Panel" in Mart 302, at 1 pm on Sunday.

By the way, the room labelles "Auction" in the Program Book is also known as "Mart 302", which will have alternate programming. LaSalle A & B will also have alternate programming.

The Baby-sitting room is room 317.

PLEASE NOTE:

In order to promote the general safety and welfare of all Minicon 16 attendees, please observe the following rules:

- 1) No real looking guns.
- 2) No lasers.
- 3) All other weapons must be peace-bonded and sheathed, as appropriate.

Thank you.

The Program Book Map of the 2nd floor of the Mart is incorrect. The front third of the left side is the (smoking) annex to the hucksters room; the back two-thirds are occupied by Uncle Hugo's.

Please Note: Strobe lights will be used in the light show during the Masquerade show in the Gold Room.

FILMS THAT ARE SHOWING IN TOWN THIS WEEKEND:

- Skyway (1): The Fog
(2): Winds of Change (animated version of Ovid's Metamorphoses)
- Academy: The Changeling
(both of the above just a short walk away)

• ALL THE NUANCE THAT FITS, WE WIT. •

Non-correction: Not contrary to ~~KNA~~ rumor, there is no programming item entitled "More buildings made of panels and food"; nor "More food made of building panels"; not to mention "Foum".

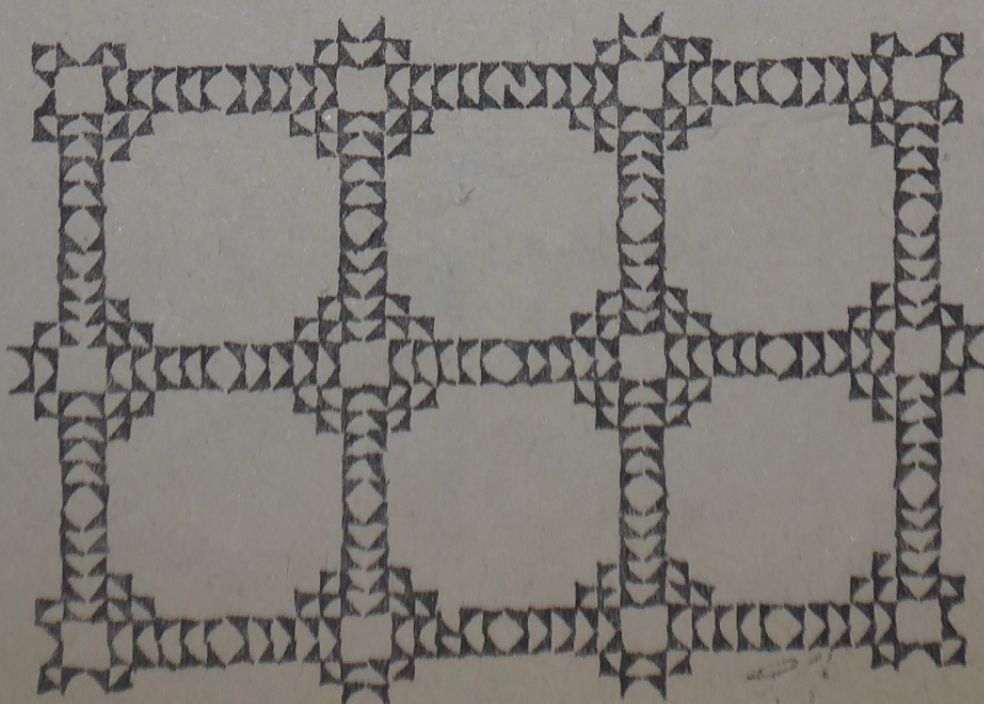

Nuke the snails.

Slime is on our side.

"Come into the O-Zone—come into the Mimeo Room."

(Serious item!) The Hotel Security people are stopping people who carry knives and asking them to put them in their rooms (even though the ~~xxxx~~ knives ~~xxxx~~ are peace-bonded). If you don't want to be hassled, maybe leave your knives somewhere safe (like your room). The con committee can't do anything about this. Thanx.

has come to the attention of some concerned individuals that there are some fake, obvious forgery's of the Bogoboo certificate. Please check yours carefully.

Announcement:

Brookcon is dead--part II. BYOB (Bring Your Own Bunny) room 1072. Sponsored by I.O.N.S.

Bat Dinger was a man from the future. He lived so far in the future he didn't even know what Minicon was. He didn't know what Minicon was?
Didn't this guy have even the vaguest idea of what fun was? Didn't he know that a coke in the morning was as good as a wink is too a blind piece of paper? Love doesn't grow on trees!!!

NOTICE: Any person found chewing chocolate bubblegum in the hallways will please report to the mimeo room to explain how you got it.

IN BOB WE TRUST.

Bring your own bunny?

this is a far far better thing I do than I have ever done before!

Bat Dinger tossed back his blazing red hair and, like Nick Boxtop would have done, looked into the golden sky. He wasn't impressed Nick Boxtop would have been. But then, he wasn't used to seeing what he was seeing. It came in flames,

RESISTANCE IS USELESS,
HE SAYS.

CAN YOU EVEN SEE IT?
IT'S REALLY SMALL.

First the news stuff. The report last time about the Hotel Security being rude to people who are carrying knives was false. it was the pseudo police in the Raddsson Arcade. Please don't hassle these people as they have guns and aren't...

I would like to thank all the people who made the mimeo room a whole shit load of fun (more than two people can carry.)
